

HelioShield Roof Renewal Package

Your roof is one of the most important investments you'll make in your home.

A well-maintained roof protects your family and valuables from the elements, increases your home's value and energy-efficiency and ultimately, saves you money. Without proper maintenance, your roof can be damaged by weather, debris and pests, resulting in unexpected – and often costly – repairs.

Don't let a tiny leak become a big headache.

The HelioShield Roof Renewal Package is a comprehensive roof maintenance plan that protects your home's exterior year-round.

Why choose HelioShield?

- Extends the lifespan of your roof
- Saves you money on costly repairs
- Protects your home from leaks and other damage
- Increases your home value

Purchase Kainos' HelioShield package and receive:

- Comprehensive roof inspection & report
- Resealing of all exposed fasteners, popped nails, and pipe jacks
- Refastening and resealing of loose shingles and flashing
- Cleaning of minor loose debris on roof
- Trimming of small overhanging branches
- First Priority Response in a significant weather event such as hailstorm or hurricane

HelioShield puts money back into your pocket, bundling a group of services that would cost 2X or more if purchased individually.

As a valued HelioShield customer, you'll also get:

- 20% discount on all repairs such as replacement of shingles, pipe jacks & flashing, rotted decking, siding, gutter cleaning and dryer vent cleaning
- 30% discount on LeafBlaster Pro Gutter Guard System
- 20% discount on upgraded ventilation systems
- If you replace your roof with Kainos within one year of your HelioShield package purchase, the package price will be applied as a credit toward your new roof!

Package pricing starts at $250 and is based on roof size and pitch.

“ I recently used Kainos for roof maintenance and minor repairs. They were an amazing group to work with. Very responsive and reasonably priced. I had no idea that this summer would impact my roof as much as it did. The Kainos team was very honest and informative. I will use them for all my roofing needs. ”
